HOLLYWOOD YMCA CELEBRATES NEWLY RENOVATED FACILITY WITH RIBBON CUTTING CEREMONY

Renovations designed to help better serve the community

WHO: The YMCA of South Florida President & CEO Sheryl A. Woods; Greater Hollywood YMCA, Hollywood Mayor Josh Levy, business man David Tabb, and others.

WHAT: Ribbon Cutting Ceremony for the newly renovated Greater Hollywood YMCA

WHEN: 10 a.m. Friday, November 13, 2017
Sneak Peek & Tours available beginning at 9 a.m.

WHERE: Greater Hollywood YMCA Family Center
3161 Taft Street
Hollywood, FL 33021

WHY: The YMCA is now able to provide more health and wellness programs and services. Volunteers Dick Blattner and Heidi O'Sheehan co-chaired the Greater Hollywood Y Capital Campaign, raising $1.2 for capital improvements to the Y.

Renovations include:

- New Lobby with Welcome Center and Gathering Area to connect with family, friends and neighbors
- New Women's and Men's Locker Rooms to save time and have the ease and convenience of a place to change
- New Expanded Spin Room to get more active and stay healthy; and new equipment.

NOTE: The YMCA will also hold a free Community Day on Saturday, October 14, from 10 a.m.-2 p.m. to showcase the newly renovated and refreshed YMCA.
